

Prince George Bankruptcy Trustee

Prince George Bankruptcy Trustee - Our skilled team are knowledgeable and experienced in all the parts of insolvency law consisting of matters like for example bankruptcies, foreclosures and receiverships.

Our firm offers legal recommendation to both individuals and corporations when handling bankruptcy. The objective of our firm is to ensure that are client's rights are respected all over the whole procedure. We also have several litigators who are significantly knowledgeable in representing both debtors and creditors in court.

We specialize in insolvency law and specifically the aspect of receivership. Our company has a base of clients ranging from lenders to court-appointed and privately appointed receivers. A lot of cases includes us offering counsel about the determination of priority issues between rivaling creditors.

Our company has represented several major institutional clients, over the years, in foreclosures on various residential and commercial properties. We even have lots of knowledge defending client's who have been threatened with foreclosure. Our professionals are knowledgeable and well-seasoned in all facets of insolvency law.