

Prince George Accident Lawyers

Prince George Accident Lawyers - Our insurance professionals act in the interests of the insurance trade in several issues. These consist of defense of professionals, directors and officers; subrogated actions; fire litigation; product liability claims; personal injury claims; and class actions. We provide the insurance trade with legal counsel at all levels of the Courts and have helped insurers in policy wordings.

We act in various property and casualty claims on behalf of private insurers and Insurance Corporations. Our objective is to offer clients with affordable solutions to insurance claims.

We offer corporate advice to insurers. Our long-standing relationships with numerous local and global insurance market insurers enable us to provide the insurance trade with cost-efficient and expert counsel.

Professional Liability

We help in the development of professional liability policy wordings for architects, accountants, and engineers, providing opinions and counsel concerning coverage and coverage disputes in these areas.

Municipal Liability

Our partners advise about policy wordings and coverage issues for local government members and their Commissions and Boards, as well as providing counsel and coverage matters on their behalf. We even act for municipalities in liability actions occurring out of fire associated losses and code enforcement.

Directors' and Officers' Liability

We have handled coverage matters as control counsel for D&O carriers. The claims against officers and other directors are efficiently and directly handled.

Builders' Risk

We offer litigation in problems related to faulty workmanship, materials, and design exclusion in builders risk policies.

Insurance Fraud

We act for insurers in issues associated to insurance fraud consisting of offering coverage advice, defending the denial of fraudulent claims, and advancing claims on behalf of insurers against insureds and third party service providers.

Fire Losses

Our fire loss group is experienced in each and every aspect of fire associated claims, delivering services in the most effective and focused way. We provide coverage suggestion as well as handle fire litigation from the preliminary investigation to the case preparation and presentation stages. We represent insurers when claims of bad faith and subrogation have an effect on their direct interests.

Class Actions

Our lawyers have litigated numerous high profile class actions in cases that include insurance issues, product liability and financial services.
