

Prince George Accident Lawyer

Prince George Accident Lawyer - Our Intellectual Property (IP) Team knows the importance and value of your intellectual property. In order to assist you license and protect your intellectual property, we provide different legal assistance related to trademarks, trade secrets, copyright and industrial designs. Our clients are those involved within the creation, licensing, use, protection and acquisition of intellectual property. Our IP lawyers have many years of skill securing patent, trademark, industrial design and copyright registrations nationally and internationally. We are skilled at enforcing your intellectual property rights.

We provide the following Patent assistance: prosecution, preparation and filing of patent applications; prior art searching; licensing and assignments; enforcement.

For Trademarks, we provide the following: opinions and searching relating to registration of word, design, certification or public official marks and distinguishing guises; filing and preparation of applications for registration; licensing, franchising and assignment agreements; opposition proceedings before the Trade-mark Opposition Board; passing-off opinions and infringements; expungent (removal) applications and renewals; trademark defense and enforcement.

For certain Copyright matters, we provide searching; licensing of literary (including software), musical and dramatic works; preparation, filing and prosecution of applications for registration; infringement opinions; assignment and copyright protected works and sale of copyright; copyright defense and enforcement.

We can help your company with the protection of Trade Secrets in order to keep your competitive advantage. We can craft agreements and programs to protect confidential data.

For Industrial Designs we offer searching and availability opinions; assignment and licensing; preparation, filing and prosecution of applications for registration.

Our clients come from a variety of industries such as entertainment, hotels, agriculture, technology, travel and manufacturing.