

Prince George Bankruptcy

Prince George Bankruptcy - Our firm during the last few decades has offered advice on all aspects of bankruptcy law, consisting of creditor's remedies, reorganizations and restructurings as well as commercial litigation. Our profile is globally recognized, and as such we have a large majority of our clientele which are globally based. Much of our business regards cross-border insolvencies and restructuring between America and Canada. We are knowledgeable in various matters because of our many domestic relationships with various professionals and lenders. Our experience includes working together with commercial and financial organizations, domestic and international financial institutions, investors, receivers, creditor's committees, trustees, debtors and acquirers in insolvencies and reorganizations.

Members of our practice helped develop the system of Canadian cross-border insolvency. Moreover, the local and federal government takes into consideration when amending the Canadian laws involving global trades. We are proud to be active members of several worldwide insolvency organizations.
