

Prince George Corporate Lawyer

Prince George Corporate Lawyer - Our team of Corporate and Commercial law lawyers offers both recommendation and further assistance to a variety of commercial and corporate clients, consisting of cooperatives, small business proprietors, credit unions, chartered banks, insurance and trust firms, businesses, governmental agencies and multi-national corporations.

We offer legal services in all aspects of commercial activity in the public and private business sectors throughout the nation and all over the globe.

We advise and assist with the negotiation of mergers and acquisitions, public and private financing and corporate restructuring. Our area of expertise extends into securities law matters, including technology and intellectual property law, private and public offerings of securities, foreign investment, partnership law and competition law. Our lawyers have extensive skill with all aspects of business transactions, whether international or local in scope, like for instance sales of services and goods, leases, distributorships, franchises and trade law.