

Prince George Bankruptcy Lawyers

Prince George Bankruptcy Lawyers - Opportunities arise from the chaos throughout stressful economic times. Our team concentrates on business solutions and restructuring group can help clients seize the rare opportunities making use of our unique multi-disciplinary approach. We are conveniently located in the majority of provinces/territories within Canada. Our lawyers pride themselves on going the additional mile so as to look for solutions outside the conventional alternatives while still maintaining the company's standing as an effective and cost-effective firm.

Our lawyers are really knowledgeable in all facets of international and domestic insolvency and bankruptcy law. Knowledge wise, we have worked on cases concerning the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, Canada Business Corporations Act as well as Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act. Additionally, we have skills in preference legislation, personal property security, and provincial business corporation. When considered necessary, our firm searches for outside opinions to be certain quality service is maintained

Liquidators, stakeholders, debtors in restructuring matters acting for unsecured and secured receivers, proposal trustees, monitors, managers, trustees and creditors in bankruptcy all rely on advice from our firm to make sure their businesses succeed financially. We offer individualized and unique alternatives for those who are looking to make money from the existing economic situation.

Our company likewise has extensive knowledge in the fraud part of Bankruptcy Law. We ensure that the lawyer designated to your case is part of the entire process, from the beginning investigations all the way to the retrieval of the clients assets. Our firm has acted as a independent monitor in "Anton Piller Orders", that are civil search warrants.

The board of directors, as well as officers and individual directors, ask for our recommendation concerning corporate governance matters. These matters consist of their fiduciary duties, liabilities and obligations.