

Prince George Business Law Firm

Prince George Business Law Firm - At our office, we really know the business objectives of our clients and work towards achieving those objectives with timely, efficient and customized legal counsel. We have a lot of private and public businesses, amongst our clients, together with their board members and executives. We act as business advisors, making use of the multidisciplinary strengths of our lawyers in the full range of business law areas, such as mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, tax planning and environmental compliance. We have knowledge in industries ranging from entertainment and sports to communications and information technology.

We deal with clients with many different commercial agreements, such as the preparation of license agreements, confidentiality agreements, customer service agreements, supply contract agreements, employment agreements, project agreements, non-competition agreements, management agreements and consulting agreements.

Our firm can assist with the purchase or sale of shares or assets of businesses, including: the coordination of auctions, related due diligence, required financing and regulatory approval under the Competition Act and other statutes. Our group has facilitated business combinations intended to implement complex company reorganizations in a tax efficient way, like for example "butterfly" transactions, plans of arrangement and amalgamations.
