

Insurance Lawyers Prince George

Insurance Lawyers Prince George - You are qualified to sue if an insurance firm violates the terms of a written agreement. Nonetheless, the courts will normally only force the insurance company to pay the amounts owed in accordance to the contract.

If an insurance company has withheld payments intentionally, you could be entitled for extra-contractual damages. These damages might be awarded if the insurance company ignores or fabricates proof in addition to giving partial information of your claim. The damages awarded comprise expenses such as interest payments and the loss of RRSPs, and compensation for mental suffering. Punitive and exemplary damages are granted when insurance companies display specially malicious conduct.