

Patent Agents Prince George

Patent Agents Prince George - For our clients, we could provide a full range of services to allow them to efficiently and quickly meet all of their trademark and copyright needs. Enforcing trademark and copyright rights in trademark opposition proceedings and litigation is one of our company's specialties. Moreover, we likewise help our clients in the legal clearance of trademarks and help guide them during the registration process. Our knowledge and expertise allows our clients to understand the full value of the intellectual property and provides them with the information and resources needed to obtain the needed protection.

Regardless of the size of the firm, we can give effective and cost efficient resolutions to some clients. We offer services in the management of a portfolio of intellectual property assets, advice about a licensing program or an acquisition, or assistance in regulating the uses of logos, slogans or trademarks in the marketplace. The objectives and needs of our clients is always vital and our flexible method ensures that the demands of the marketplace are met in a timely manner.