

Criminal Law Prince George

Criminal Law Prince George - Our company's legal professionals, trade-mark agents and patent agents have experience within the field of intellectual property. Our lawyers in particular, are very experienced in assisting our clientele in developing intellectual property strategies and helping our clients to create draft applications.

With more than 30 years of experience handling intellectual property, our senior lawyers are renowned for their knowledge and skill. Through time, we have expanded our firms globally to ensure that our Canadian and international clients have access to intellectual property protection.

As the globe is always in a state of transformation, intellectual property is among the most valuable aspects in a knowledge based economy. Making use of our lawyers innovative legal advice, our clients can realize the full potential of their intellectual property. Our advice even helps protect them against counterfeiting, competition and infringement.

Professional scientists, PHDs and engineers who are leaders in patents, trade-marks, copyright, industrial design, and intellectual property agreements and disputes likewise are part of our intellectual property Team.

We make sure that each client is properly matched with a registered patent and trade-mark agent to draw on their knowledge, ensuring that their intellectual property is well protected.