

Prince George Tax Lawyer

Prince George Tax Lawyer - Our firm specializes in dealing with the many tax disputes issues and has significant knowledge in tax litigation. Lots of companies require our help to help them negotiate with tax authorities. We normally represent them before the courts on tax appeals.

Capital, income, mining and commodity trade cases or taxation are all situations where our firm is experienced and knowledgeable. By utilizing all the resources that we have available, we ensure that our client is totally ready to handle audits, information requests, reassessment proposals, and voluntary disclosures. Our tax solicitors normally call upon our tax litigators early on to advise our clients about the tax aspects of a transaction. Should a reassessment be inevitable, we try to resolve the disagreement using administrative appeals. If this approach does not get positive outcome, we endeavor to simplify the circumstances prior to beginning the litigation process. Our main objective is to be able to help our clients come to a resolution efficiently and quickly.

We have acted in recent cases which involved transfer pricing, interpretative questions and tax avoidance. These particular questions include experimental development and scientific research costs, taxable benefits, foreign exchange, and payroll and commodity taxes.

Our base of clients include various domestic and foreign companies, comprising public institutions and partnerships, tax-exempt corporations, and various businesses in the areas of telecommunications, financials, utilities and pharmaceuticals. We ensure that a close working relationship is maintained on both a global and national level along with accountants, chief financial officers, tax executives and tax advisors.