

Prince George Family Lawyer

Prince George Family Lawyer - When your marriage or common-law relationship dissolves, lots of problems may happen. It is imperative that you retain sound legal counsel and that you fully understand the impact that your potential choices may have on your future. Our firm gives professional recommendation and counsel on those issues as access, custody, pension and property division, business property and debt division. Our office is dedicated to providing you with the essential legal assistance you need to navigate throughout the family law process effectively and fast.

With whom will your kids live? When will the children see the non-custodial parent? Who is in charge of financial support? Who will keep the matrimonial home? Who would be responsible for paying any debts incurred all through the marriage? And, if you ran a family business, how will the business assets be divided?

Here at our company, we can help you in the preparation of the Separation Agreement, that provides clear and comprehensive answers to such questions. To enable you to concentrate on your new life, a formal agreement is recommended. This Separation Agreement, once finalized, is a binding agreement on both parties.

This type of agreement could even get included into the final Divorce Order. When you and your spouse agree to divorce and have agreement about all major problems this is referred to as an uncontested divorce. An uncontested divorce could proceed quickly through a three-part application process. Our task is to assist you in the preparation of all required papers and to file them quickly so that you can move on with your life.

When you and your spouse cannot agree on matters, we call this a contested divorce. These problems can be dealt with through settlement conferences, court proceedings, informal negotiations between parties and/or trials. Our lawyers will assist you during all stages of the court process. Our aim is to be able to protect your rights and advocate for the best interests of you and your family.

When a common-law relationship needs a different process about custody, support, property division and pension division matters. We can also assist you with the termination of a common-law relationship connected problems.
