

Family Lawyer in Prince George

Family Lawyer in Prince George - From each jurisdiction, the adoption legislation will vary. You should confer with an experienced family law lawyer, whether or not you are thinking about a domestic or international adoption, to be able to help ensure that the process goes smoothly with successful results. Our company provides the skilled, aggressive and fearless legal representation necessary to assist you attain your objective. We welcome difficult cases and would work truly hard to ensure the best possible result.

Adoption is a multi-step procedure governed by law, that allows adoptions to go through a children's aid society, the court or a private agency.

Private Adoption

Private adoptions are managed by agencies licensed to provide private adoption services. In private adoptions, the birth parents choose the adoptive parents. If you know of an available child for adoption, you can contact a private adoption licensee. Private adoptions can be emotionally stressful and because of the paperwork requirements involved. It is suggested that you obtain legal counsel for help.

Public Adoption

A public adoption means adopting a child via a children's aid society in situations wherein the birth parents would like a different family to adopt their child or the Court has determined that the parents cannot manage the task of raising a child. Public adoptions are complex and require the assistance of an experienced lawyer. We understand the nuances of the public adoption system. Our firm will provide you with experienced representation.

International Adoption

Expert legal representation is specifically critical for an international adoption, which is the most complicated adoption procedure. It is essential that you fully know the complexities of international laws, and that you adhere to the adoption laws, immigration laws, and the laws of the child's home country, which International adoption agencies are approved to deal with such cases. The process will involve a letter of approval from Children and Youth Services and a home study.