

Real Estate Lawyers in Prince George

Real Estate Lawyers in Prince George - In the areas of purchasing and financing, development projects, local government approvals as well as commercial leasing and sale, our company has built a reputation within the business.

Our company's client base comprises both international and local clients. These include borrowers and lenders, co-operatives, educational institutions, contractors, local and international developers, forestry, hospitals, local government, vendors and purchasers, partnerships and other investment syndications, real estate agents, retail, managers and manufacturers. We have a great deal of knowledge working on various projects consisting of office work and industrial centers to shopping centers and residential estates.

Numerous city officials would depend on lawyers as their principle advisors about real estate expansion and the options and priorities the city has concerning local government restrictions and relations. The information we supply is essential to the negotiations between our client and the local government.

Our group will confer with various lawyers in the First nations, Tax groups, Environmental and Financial Services to ensure we are giving accurate suggestion. If any disputes or disagreements arise during the proceedings, we have a selection of mediation, arbitration and litigation lawyers available to help our clients.

Many of the lawyers who work for our group have received a number of prestigious awards, both nationally and locally. Efficiency, accuracy and quality are a few of the qualities which represent our group. We use all of the resources obtainable to us to make sure our clients have all of the data and support they require to take advantage of the real estate market.