In the private equity market, we have built relationships and contacts along with American, Canadian, and international clients. Our close relationships would help enable us to foresee opportunities and connect our clientele to each other for their mutual benefit. Some of these relationships comprise private companies and public companies, institutional investors, leading private equity firms, pension funds, venture capital firms, financial institutions, and entrepreneurs. Our private equity clients benefit from the sources of debt financing wherein we can connect them. Whenever our clients want to buy or sell businesses, we could introduce them to potential buyers or sellers.

We are normally called upon by the lead counsel in foreign transactions to be able to provide domestic legal advice and help with transaction execution. We often collaborate together with international law companies in cross-border private equity transactions that otherwise have worldwide components. In foreign or overseas transactions, we work with top foreign law companies to obtain suggestion concerning foreign legal considerations.
