

Prince George Legal Aid

Prince George Legal Aid - Our firm's Education and Public Law group advises and represents school boards and educator organizations in different legal matters affecting them.

Among the legal assistance we provide in public law and education law are employment and labour relationships, contract negotiations, general civil and commercial litigation, special education, human rights, judicial review and appeals, administrative law, freedom of information and privacy law, conflict of interest law, health law and constitutional law. We even advise and act on behalf of educator clients in aspects of corporate-commercial, like municipal law, real estate law and construction law.

To be able to help educators in handling complex issues facing them, we provide comprehensive, effective and timely assistance.

Amongst our several clients consist of public and Catholic school boards, Ministries of Education, agencies and boards and governmental commissions. Our Education and Public Law practitioners work closely along with experts in our Business Law Group and Real Estate Group.

Our lawyers are frequently called upon to make presentations at national conferences and in-service seminars. They often publish articles regarding education and public law in magazines and journals.
