

Disability Lawyers Prince George

Disability Lawyers Prince George - Our lawyers assist clients in issues of tax, trust, and estate and guardianship problems. Many of our clients consist of business owners, individuals and families, non-profit and charitable organizations. Clients benefit from our personalized estate and gift plans, which are tailored in order to help with the protection and preservation of their accumulated assets.

Estate plans could range in complexity from the relatively simple family home transfer plan to the transfer of a business's ownership and control in a smooth and tax efficient manner. As part of our estate planning practice, we assist clients in formulating and implementing plans, comprising the preparation of required documents. Among the tools we can include into estate plans are Health care Proxies, Wills, Living Trusts, Supplemental Needs Trusts, Life Insurance Trusts and Power of Attorney.

We understand that estate administration and estate planning can be stressful and emotional for people. We have both the sensitivity and the experience to provide high quality legal assistance in a compassionate, cost-effective and attentive way. When a death happens, surviving family members count on the knowledge and experience of our lawyers to assist them with the administration of the estate and trusts. Our skills encompass handling creditors, filing estate tax returns, probating wills, and lessening estate income tax and estate tax. When litigation of estate matters is unavoidable and necessary in order to protect the interest of the estate, its fiduciaries and its beneficiaries, our litigators have the skill to act in their clients' best interests.
