

Law Firms in Prince George

Law Firms in Prince George - The goal of Our Tax Group is to be able to protect our clients' assets through structuring of business transactions, domestic and international tax planning, and litigating tax disputes. Our lawyers are highly regarded on an international and national basis for their innovations in international and domestic tax planning. We are recognized for the innovative use of trusts, corporations, partnerships, joint ventures and various vehicles. Our Tax Group is often requested by different law firms and accounting firms seeking our specialized knowledge for their clients.

We can help our clients about the benefits of all types' transactions and our lawyers work with our firm's Corporate Finance and Corporate/Commercial Teams. This allows us to produce the most favorable tax consequences possible throughout business strategies, arrangements and transactions.

We make use of the several taxation agencies which we have built superb relations in order to allow us to successfully represent clients in areas of needing advance tax ruling, promoting legislative change, and negotiating and disputing the settlement of tax reassessments. In conditions where tax disagreements cannot be settled, our Tax Team litigators act on behalf of clients before all levels of the courts.
