

Law Offices in Prince George

Law Offices in Prince George - Entertainment, Media & Sports law regulates activities in the broadcasting and telecommunication industries. Our company represents the interests of clients before tribunals and commissions using the multidisciplinary approach demanded by this complex area of law.

Our clientele comprises people like artists, entertainers and professional athletes. We provide them with services related to tax planning, contract negotiation; intellectual property protection and dispute settlement.

We work directly together with professionals within our Corporate/Commercial, Corporate Finance, Technology & Communications and Tax teams so as to carry out and structure financing arrangements. Our clients consist of producers of theatrical works, television programs and motion pictures. We likewise advise and act for groups that are in the process of expanding or acquiring cable systems and telecommunication networks.