

Estate Lawyers Prince George

Estate Lawyers Prince George - When somebody you love becomes incapacitated or passes away estate litigation immediately follows. Emotions, interpersonal and family quarrels happen, which in turn makes the responsibility of making vital decisions nearly intolerable. Our firm has different kinds of services that could guarantee that all the estate matters are handled efficiently and quickly.

We offer help to personal representatives, beneficiaries and executors about challenges to power of attorney, wills and trusts. This comprises trusteeship and guardianship arguments, undue influence and will interpretation, dependent adult claims, and capacity. Also, trustees, trusts and charitable institutions can depend on our company for helpful advice.

In the case when a dependent adult or the estate are included, difficult and stressful situations can arise. We will guarantee that all our clients get effective and straightforward recommendations. Our resolutions are achieved through mediation, arbitration or litigation.
