

Prince George Family Lawyers

Prince George Family Lawyers - To be able to help our clients through their experiences during a breakdown in their marriage or common-law relationship issues, our family law practitioners provide services associated to business, valuation, prenuptial agreement, divorce, and other legal matters. Also, when marital relationships fail, clients require assistance and sound recommendation concerning the numerous issues covering all their personal and business assets.

To be able to lessen the resulting disruptions and to minimize costs for our clients, we work to solve the numerous problems using a combination of common sense and resourcefulness. Alternate dispute resolutions or direct negotiation are frequently enough to resolve family matters. However, when appropriate, family law matters can proceed to court.

Divorce Settlements

We have family law professionals helping clients in obtaining divorce settlements. The property division and spousal support issues which accompany divorce are dealt with by our skilled family law practitioners. The law governing spousal support is complicated and constantly evolving. Clients rely on experienced legal assistance in this area so as to protect their interests. Increasingly, cohabitation and separation agreements are subject to variation and review in the courts.

Business Valuations

Sometimes divorce proceedings will often consist of business holdings needing numerous key assets that must be divided. Provide a proper evaluation of the assets is important for an appropriate disposition, for the purpose of dividing these assets. Our family law firm works together with the appropriate experts to be able to guarantee the correct valuation of clients' business holdings.

Prenuptial Agreements

Numerous clients wish to choose prenuptial agreement in order to maintain their premarital assets just in case their marriage happens to fail. Our family law practitioners provide recommendation on and structure prenuptial agreements.

Estate Litigation

The defense of challenges to family trusts are a very important part of our family law practice. Divorce proceedings could put family trust assets at risk. Estate litigators act to protect and preserve family trust assets whenever a marriage dissolves.

Mobility Rights

After the dissolution of a marriage, the rights of parents to access and mobility can be compromised. Some of these matters comprise the ability of a parent to relocate in a different city, province, or country along with a child of the marriage. Family law works to make sure that the client's rights are considered and protected.
